Kickoff Message & Alumni Panel Presentation

Monday, October 30 Noon - 1 p.m.

Virtual via Webex

Interested in a major, but unsure about career prospects post-graduation? Did you know that some academic pathways can lead to a wide variety of career opportunities?

With over 30+ years of experience supporting students in career development, kickoff speaker Alana Klass will challenge attendees to rethink some widely-held beliefs about choosing a college major. Additionally, UMBC alumni, either raised in Baltimore or currently working in the area, will share how their unique academic pathways led them to the careers they hold today.

B'More Supported

Campus Support to Enhance your Major

Tuesday, October 31 2 - 3 p.m.

Virtual via Webex

It's not just academic advisors and department representatives who can support you in your academic journey!

Join us for a panel session to learn about six campus offices/programs that can support students in major exploration and/or adding more to their academic experience beyond the required coursework.

Additionally, this panel will highlight co-curricular opportunities in the Baltimore area!

B'More Connected

@ The Majors Fair

Wednesday, November 1 11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m.

UC Ballroom

Join us for an in-person opportunity to explore and learn more about the vast and diverse majors UMBC has to offer. Connect 1:1 with faculty and staff from all academic departments!

Already decided on a major? Connect with your department and discuss opportunities like internships, research or study abroad, including those in the Baltimore-area!

You don't want to miss our most popular program! Will have free food!

Academic Planning Workshop

Thursday, November 2 2 - 3 p.m.

UC 310

With a little bit of work can come big gains. Academic planning does not have to be a daunting task. It really comes down to knowing your interests and goals and what tools to use to help you map out your time at UMBC.

Whether you have selected your major or not, every student can benefit from planning beyond just the next semester!

Join us for this interactive workshop led by OAPA's Deanna Cerquetti on the benefits of long-term academic planning and how to get started. Will have free food!
