

EDHS 230

Community Lifelines

Tu/Th 1:00 pm – 2:15 pm
Fine Arts – 424
No pre-requisite

Lifelines are essential community services that support all societal functions. During disasters or public health emergencies, quick intervention is needed to restore these services. Different population groups experience different levels of impact based on societal inequities.

This course covers community lifelines, their disruption during emergencies, and the resulting health impacts and disparities.

