

UMBC Library's Mentoring Collective Presents

Library School 101

Panel and Discussion

Learn all about earning a Master's in Library Science and opportunities working in the field of Information Science with our librarians!

OCTOBER 23, 2025

12:30-1:30p LB259

Join us for an informal informational session about library school and the library professions! Chat with some of our very own librarians about what it's like to go to library school and to get a job in the field of libraries and archives. Whether you're looking at MLIS programs, or just interested in learning more about what it's like to work in a library, we hope to see you!
