

Tour of Ravens Stadium

Saturday Oct 3, 2015 - 10:00 AM

Ever wonder about some of the behind the scenes at an NFL football game? Ever stop to consider that past the stands and the field on game weekend a football stadium must provide an enormous infrastructure of services, not just for the fans but for the home and visiting team as well as facilities for sports press and other VIPs?

Here is your chance to check out some of the “behind the scenes” of professional football as ASME tours M&T Bank Stadium, home of the Super Bowl XLVII Champions; the Baltimore Ravens, on Saturday October 3rd at 10:00AM. This 90 minute walking tour will include a visit to the locker rooms, team preparation areas, and to some of the special access areas such as the press level/press box, club and suite levels. The highlight of the tour will be limited access to the field where the Ravens play.

The stadium and most areas are handicap and wheelchair accessible however wheels and some walking aids are not allowed on the field itself. Please advise if handicap accommodations are desired.

Cost $7 for members and family, $10 for non-members

Tour parking is complimentary in lot D, adjacent to Ostend and Russell Streets, see map on the next page.

Guests should plan to arrive 15 minutes prior to the tour to allow for parking and gathering. Tour starts at the black gates past the purple canopy on the west side of the stadium.
