

THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 2016

8 P.M. | CONCERT HALL

Works by Susan Botti, including a world premiere of Mangetsu

The UMBC Music Department presents Moon and Myth, a concert of contemporary vocal chamber music by composer/soprano, Susan Botti. Renowned musicians Airi Yoshioka (violin), James Wilson (cello), and Carsten Schmidt (piano) join Botti in her work Dido Refuses to Speak, featuring the poetry of Linda Gregerson (special UMBC Writer-in-Residence). A world premiere of a new work for voice and violin commissioned by Yoshioka/UMBC will also be on the program. Among Botti's accomplishments are commissions for the New York Philharmonic, the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, and the Cleveland Orchestra; awards include a Guggenheim Fellowship and The Rome Prize.

TICKETS

$15 general admission, $10 seniors, $5 students,

Available at the box office (PAHB 238—cash or check only) or online via MissionTix.com

RELATED FREE EVENTS

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27 | 4:30-6 P.M.

Meet the Composer: Susan Botti

The Music Department Conference Room (PAHB 246)

THURSDAY, APRIL 28 | 10-11:15 A.M.

Resonating Poetry: Words with Music: Susan Botti and Linda Gregerson discuss the collaborative process of creating a work

The Music Box (PAHB 151)

THURSDAY, APRIL 28 | 4-6 P.M.

Twice Told Tales: Adapting Ancient Stories in Contemporary Arts: A Talk by Linda Gregerson

Dresher Center Conference Room (216 PAHB)