

THE CENTER FOR SOCIAL SCIENCE
SCHOLARSHIP

SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH IN GOVERNMENT, BUSINESS, AND NON-PROFIT CAREERS

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2 - 3:30 P.M. EST
VIRTUAL

Learn from a panel of UMBC alumni about the importance of research skills for careers in government, business, and non-profit organizations. Panelists will lead breakout sessions to illustrate their research work and answer your questions.

Cheryl Knott '07

*geography and environmental systems,
M.A. '13, applied sociology*

Research Manager, Baltimore Neighborhood Indicators Alliance

Jonathan Feng '09

history and information systems

*Analyst, Thomson Reuters
Special Services*

Leslie McNamara '14

history

Analyst, U.S. Government Accountability Office

Facilitated by Felipe A. Filomeno, Associate Director of the Center for Social Science Scholarship