

CAHSS FACULTY WORKSHOP

Proposal Workshop

Build a flexible two-page concept that can scale with the opportunity.

+ THE OPPORTUNITY

Learn about an upcoming funding opportunity.

Be prepared to move quickly and develop a high-level proposal and budget based on your research.

The workshop will help faculty develop a short and effective project prospectus that can be expanded to fit funder needs and priorities. We will also detail an upcoming funded opportunity that may interest your faculty

Hear from Alan Yeakley on his own successful process in developing a two-page proposal.

WORKSHOP PLAN

- 1 Compare the opportunities
Clarify what each call is asking for and where your idea may fit.
- 2 Shape the two-page story
Define the problem, approach, team, outcomes, and next steps.
- 3 Build a modular budget
Identify a core version and add-on components that can grow with available support.
- 4 Get practical feedback
Pressure-test the concept with colleagues and leave with a focused revision plan.

SESSION DETAILS

DATE	TIME	LOCATION
Wednesday, October 21st	10:30am-11:30am	Virtual at Webex (Will be recorded)

HOSTED BY CAHSS RCA- In Coordination with CARAT

Session details and registration information included above. Reach out to Associate Dean, Eric Stokan at estokan@umbc.edu with any questions.

UMBC
CAHSS

$ PROPOSALS THAT CAN SCALE

One core idea. Flexible scope.

Plan for a focused start, an expanded version, and a full-scale initiative.

$50K

Focused start

$250K

Expanded team

$1.5M

Full-scale initiative

.....

✓ LEAVE WITH

A reusable two-page framework with a clear core plan and budget options that can flex from $50,000 to $1.5 million.

= Next Steps

COME WITH AN IDEA, A DRAFT, OR A QUESTION

No polished proposal is needed. Bring a project concept, a possible team, or simply an area you want to develop.

We will work toward a reusable two-page framework with a clear core plan and budget options that can flex from $50,000 to $1.5 million.