

under armour summer internship

During this 12 -week summer internship, Rookies take on a practical, self-driven project that has a real impact on our business. Throughout the program you will engage in a variety of professional development experiences, from interactive sessions with UA leaders and executives, to personalized mentorship that supports your growth each step of the way. With our focus on cross-functional collaboration and global mindset, you get to see how your work goes beyond yourself.

opportunity areas

accounting & finance • supply chain • marketing • product development product line management • design • technology • strategy human resources • merchandising apply & learn more at <https://careers.underarmour.com>