

Paid Internships Available for Baltimore Students

- $15 per hour
- 165 hours of immersive, relevant, hands-on work
- 20 hours of exclusive educational programming
- Remote and on-site internships available

Attend One of Our Online Information Sessions:

November 11, 12, & 13 • 2 p.m. & 6:30 p.m. Eastern Time

RSVP here.

Experience Museum Professions; Earn a Competitive Wage

- Gain career experience at a museum or other cultural organization in Baltimore.
- Enhance your professional skills and learn new ones.
- Complete meaningful work as a member of a team.
- Internships are available in departments such as: curatorial, collections, marketing, education, and archives.

Program Partners Include:

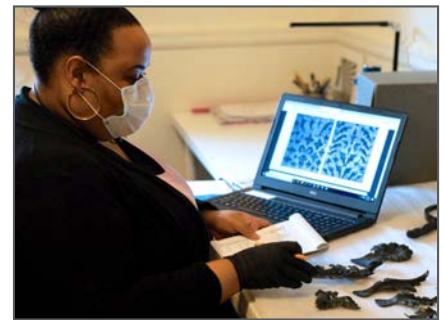

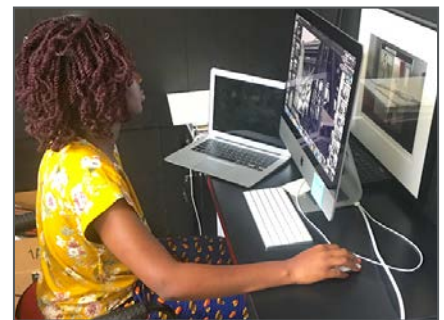

- Baltimore Museum of Art
- American Visionary Art Museum
- Reginald F. Lewis Museum...and more!

Am I Eligible?

Eligible students must be full-time juniors or seniors with high financial need. Students must be residents of, or attend college in the Baltimore area. (See artsintern.org for details.)

Questions about this unique internship opportunity?

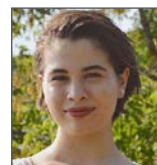

Contact Jared Cardenas: jcardenas@studioinstitute.org.

APPLY NOW
at ArtsIntern.org!

Internships run from December 2020–April 2021.
Applications are reviewed as they're received.

“

It was very useful to be able to see first-hand the level of research, deep thinking, and brainstorming that goes into enhancing visitor experience and reimagining existing exhibit spaces.

Jinette, Creative Artifacts Intern, Providence Children's Museum