

Position: Field First Fellowship

Description:

The Jazz Lewis for Congress Campaign in Maryland's Fourth District is seeking students and recent graduates to be a part of its campaign's Field First Fellowship. The fellowship will be 10-20 hours a week to support overall campaign field and political operations. Fellows will help execute a robust field operation and assist with general campaign tasks as assigned. This fellowship will also offer the opportunity to meet weekly with political and legislative professionals to help promote a robust learning environment for those looking for a career in politics. Potential fellows should be ready to knock doors, make phone calls, and help coordinate campaign activities. We are happy to help offer opportunities that reflect the goals of the fellows.

This internship will be a hybrid model with some virtual and in-person work being required.

The campaign is committed to diversity and inclusion and we encourage all individuals from all backgrounds to apply.

We are also happy to help students get college credit for the fellowship.

Length:

This fellowship will last until late April.
