

PRISON STATE

Albin O. Kuhn Library & Gallery presents a symposium on the pervasiveness of incarceration, in conjunction with the Library Gallery exhibition Prison Nation, on view 9/22-10/14/22

09/30

Kate Drabinski, UMBC Gender, Women's, + Sexuality Studies

"Imagining Otherwise: Strategies for Teaching and Learning Abolition"
In Library Gallery + Online, 12pm

10/10

Glennor Shirley, Retired Prison Librarian

"The Librarian Who Spent Years Behind Bars"
In Library Gallery + Online, 12pm

10/19

Kevin Muhitch, UMBC Alum

"No Prospect for Relief: Community Activism and the Politics of Prison Siting in Maryland, 1970-1987"
Online Only, 12pm

10/26

Elaine MacDougall, UMBC PhD Student & UMBC Writing Center

"Exploring the Inside-Out Prison Exchange Program for Baltimore Area College Students, Inside and Out"
Online Only, 12pm

10/28

Yanet Amanuel, ACLU of Maryland

"People Over Profit: What it will take to end the war on marijuana and achieve police accountability"
Online Only, 12pm

11/02

Lawrence Grandpre, Leaders of a Beautiful Struggle

"Drug Decriminalization from a Reparations Perspective"
In Library Gallery + Online, 12pm

11/09

Michael Casiano, UMBC American Studies

"Policing Jim Crow Baltimore: Archival Insights"
Online Only, 12pm

11/16

Betsy Fox Tolentino, Maryland Department of Juvenile Services

"Maryland's Pathway to Reducing Juvenile Incarceration"
In Library Gallery + Online, 12pm

12/02

Nathaniel R. Balis, The Annie E. Casey Foundation

"A New Normal or Old Status Quo: Youth Justice in a Post-Pandemic World"
In Library Gallery + Online, 12pm

REGISTER:
Hybrid In-Person
& Online Presentations

