

SPONSORED BY THE GENDER, WOMEN'S, AND SEXUALITY STUDIES DEPARTMENT, COSPONSORED BY THE AOK LIBRARY AND SPECIAL COLLECTIONS.

JOAN S. KORENMAN LECTURE

At Home in the World: Libraries & the Politics of Sexuality

School and public libraries face unprecedented efforts to challenge and censor materials related to LGBTQ+ experience. Librarians across the country face adverse legislation, hostile board takeovers, and well-funded efforts to undermine their capacity to collect and share these stories. Join Emily Drabinski for a conversation about the role libraries play in queer communities and the importance of fighting to preserve and expand these crucial public institutions.

Emily Drabinski | President, ALA

April 10, 2024 | 5 - 6 P.M.

AOK Library Gallery

GENDER, WOMEN'S, AND SEXUALITY STUDIES