

STORYTELLING & DIALOGUE ON INDIGENOUS ERASURE

Wednesday, April 17th, 2024

2:30 – 4:30pm

(With reception to follow)

Location: Sculpture Forum outside PAHB

Open to all

Storytelling Panelists:

Ashley Minner Jones (Artist, Folklorist Enrolled Citizen of the Lumbee Tribe of North Carolina)

Rico Newman (Tribal elder, Choptico Band of Indians)

Autumn Powell (UMBC graduate student Diné citizen or Citizen of the Navajo Nation)

Drew Shuptar (Tribal citizen, Pocomoke Indian Nation)

Joby Taylor (The Shriver Center at UMBC, enrolled citizen of Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma)

Yolanda Valencia (Asst Professor GES/UMBC,
Indigenous descendant from the Purépecha lands currently known as Michoacán, Mexico)

Thanks to the following UMBC co-hosts:
Dept. of Geography & Environmental Systems (GES)
The Shriver Center
Center for Social Science Scholarship (CS3)
Dresher Center for the Humanities
The Inclusion Council

Notes:

This event will be in-person only (not recorded)
*Should we experience inclement weather, the location will be the Library Gallery.

Please stay tuned to updates via myUMBC:

<http://events.umbc.edu/go/129096>