

MCS SPEAKER SERIES EVENT

November 6th

12pm-1:15pm

William Siemering

A Life in Radio

AOK LIBRARY GALLERY

1ST FLOOR

William Siemering was a founding member of the NPR board and wrote its original "mission statement," the National Public Radio Purposes. As NPR's first director of programming, Siemering pioneered novel uses of sound in the creation of the flagship nightly news program All Things Considered.

- MacArthur Foundation "genius" Grant winner
- Builds community radio status in developing countries all over the world
- Senior Fellow with the Wyncote Foundation

*Co-Sponsored by:
Dresher Center for the Humanities
Sound Studies Faculty Working Group*