

UMBC Interdisciplinary CoLab

Call for Projects Summer
2024 - Deadline Monday
November 20th

EXPLORE EVERY ANGLE

Lead students in the creation of interdisciplinary narrative research based products for community partners or to support your research portfolio

Promote collaboration, tell effective stories, and amplify voices to the general public

For More Information, Please Contact:

Rachel Carter, Ph.D.
rachc1@umbc.edu

To Read the Full CFP and to Apply, Visit:

iaac.umbc.edu/co-lab/

Ideal Proposals:

- Have a strong focus that can be explored effectively over a four week period.
- Utilize diverse research methods and humanities modes of analysis.
- Produce public-facing final projects created for community partners or individual research efforts.
- Examples include developing websites, promotional materials, field guides, and podcasts.
- Faculty and staff are encouraged to propose projects for themselves to lead, or we can help with locating a project leader.

UMBC

Interdisciplinary

CoLab