THE RAYMOND V. HAYSBERT, SR. ENTREPRENEURSHIP LECTURE SERIES

Relentless Execution - Lessons Learned & Advice for Bootstrapping Your Way to a Successful Business

Come listen to Adrian Rosebrock, CEO and owner of PyImageSearch, talk about how he used his UMBC computer science degree to jumpstart his entrepreneurial career.

PyImageSearch is a website dedicated to Artificial Intelligence, Computer Vision, and Deep Learning. It teaches students, developers, and researchers how to successfully and confidently apply Artificial Intelligence to their work and research. Through PyImageSearch, Adrian's work has become well known and utilized throughout industry and academia.

In this talk Adrian will discuss his advice and lessons learned when he first started out, including tips, techniques, and tactics you can leverage to build, launch, and grow your business before you leave UMBC.
