ISSUES CONCERNING GAS

$$ GA Benefits

- We are rigorously conducting research and are in running dialogue with the Graduate School to provide GAS competitive allowances and benefits, including health insurance, stipends, PTOs, payroll management, etc.

✉ Communication

- We are improving communication mechanisms between the GAAC and all GAS at UMBC. At the same time, we engage in Meet & Confer sessions with the administration to convey and discuss issues brought up by GAS.

On Campus Resources

- We have created a running list to useful resources for GAS to meet GA's administrative, academic, financial, mental, professional and health-based needs.

GA Handbook

- We collaborate with the administration to make timely updates to the Graduate Assistants handbook.

International Student & Scholar Services (ISSS)

About ISSS

International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS), a branch of UMBC's Center for Global Engagement, is dedicated to supporting UMBC's international student and scholar community and helping them achieve their academic, personal, and professional goals. ISSS offers a variety of programs and services to aide students in these endeavors:

Immigration Advising - ISSS helps international students and scholars navigate the U.S. visa process and maintain valid immigration status by providing the guidance, knowledge, and necessary resources.

Community Building - ISSS offers programming designed to help students make important connections within the UMBC community. These opportunities for intercultural exchange and mutual understanding enhance the UMBC international student experience. Work and Internships - ISSS works with current students and alumni to help them access the many employment and internship opportunities available to them by facilitating the use of benefits such as Curricular Practical Training (CPT), Optional Practical Training (OPT), and other employment authorizations.

Questions ?

Center for the Integration of Research, Teaching and Learning (CIRTL)

Dr. Jamie Gurganus

<https://gspd.umbc.edu/center-for-research-teaching-and-learning-cirtl/>

Reflect upon your Undergraduate time and how you felt about the teaching?

What would you change?

- Increasing institutional fragmentation of STEM teaching and research
- Most faculty positions expect career-long success in research and teaching, with different balances depending on institution
- Undergraduate students perceive that STEM teaching is neither effective nor motivating

Center for the Integration of Research, Teaching and Learning (CIRTL)

The CIRT L mission is to enhance excellence in undergraduate education through the development of a national STEM faculty committed to implementing and advancing effective teaching practices for diverse learners as part of successful and varied professional careers.

CIRT L was founded in 2003 as a National Science Foundation Center for Learning and Teaching in higher education.

Teaching-as-Research

- STEM professor as change agent
- The deliberate and systematic use of research methods to advance teaching and learning practices
- Self-sustained improvement of STEM education

Learning Community

- In learning communities, graduate students, post-doc, and faculty share learning and discovery
- Participants collaboratively construct knowledge and achieve learning goals
- Supports growth in teaching and learning

Learning-through-Diversity

- Excellence and diversity are necessarily intertwined
- Students and faculty bring an array of experiences and skills
- Learning of all students is enhanced if all engaged

Opportunities for you!
Become Certified from a Nationally recognized organization

Outcomes, Get Certified in

CIRTL Associate: recognize the role of the CIRTL pillars in effective teaching and learning.

CIRTL Practitioner: scholarly teaching that builds on the CIRTL pillars to demonstrably improve learning and make the results public.

CIRTL Scholar: scholarship that advances teaching and learning under peer review.

For more information

<https://cirtl.umbc.edu/certifications/>

What Does this Mean for CIRTL Graduate Students and Post-Docs?

- Being more effective teachers throughout their careers.
- A competitive advantage for faculty positions, and a head start as junior faculty members.
- Increased success in obtaining NSF Graduate Fellowships, CAREER awards, and research funding.

2024-2025 Call for applications for the SEA CIRTL program

The call for applications will open on August 30 and close on September 18, 2024

Calling ALL current graduate students at UMBC interested in being a SEA CIRTL Fellow for the Summer Enrichment Academy \(SEA\) and the CIRTL programs at UMBC. SEA provides one-week camps for middle and high school students on the UMBC Campus. These camps help kids to stay engaged, have fun learnin new skills, and get excited about higher education at UMBC.

These SEA CIRTL Fellows will develop and implement a SEA one (1) week course in a topic of their choice with guided mentorship in Fall 2024 and Spring 2025 and implement the course with SEA in Summer 2025. Fellows will be required to attend a variety of sessions that help them solidify their course ideas, learn about teaching approaches that are accessible and engaging for high school and middle school students, and plan their courses. This will all count toward a CIRTL certificate, which is a nationally recognized teaching certificate! Upon teaching the course in Summer 2025, Fellows will be paid a minimum of $1000/week for 1 or 2 weeks, with an opportunity for more depending on enrollment for the course.

Note: Courses are run as half-day camps for a week (5 days), and Fellows will be able to choose two weeks of these five options: June 23-27, July 7-11, July 14-18, July 21-25, July 28 – Aug 1.

Please complete this form by September 18, 2024.

FAQs

- Do stipends get taxed?

Stipends are taxable income. Graduate Assistants (GA) will receive a 1099 form at the beginning of each calendar year to use when filing taxes. We cannot advise as to how the income must be reflected on taxes and ask that GAs consult with a tax professional on those types of questions.

- Does tuition remission get taxed if you are a Research Assistant? If not, how do you include it as non-taxable income in your taxes?

If you are an Research Assistant (RA) or Teaching Assistant (TA), tuition remission is not taxed. If you are an Administrative Assistant (AA), your tuition remission is capped to $5,250 annually; anything over this is taxed at 25%.

- How much summer leave days do we get as a 12 months Graduate Assistant?

40 hours if Full Time, 20 hours if Part Time.

- Do we get sick leave days and study days too?

Sick leave 40 hours FT, 20 hours PT; no study days. if so, how many days?

- How early can we register to classes to avoid problems?

Not sure what "problems" the student is referring to when they ask about how early they should register for classes to avoid problems. I would say it is always advisable to register early recommended to review their financial information on myUMBC and read their UMBC email regularly to avoid problems. This will ensure that they know if tuition remission is posted, if there is a balance, if any action is necessary, etc.

- Can international students be full time GAs while they are completing an off campus unpaid mandatory internship from their program?

Overload restrictions only apply to on-campus employment.

FAQs

- Are we (GAs at UMBC) a union/have collective bargaining?
UMBC GAs are not unionized and do not participate in collective bargaining.
- Grad 600 or Grad 601 count towards full time, right?
Yes, Grad 600 and Grad 601 count towards full-time status each semester.
- If you are NOT an international student, and wanted to work more than 20 hours through work that is not through the GA (like tutoring or part time coffee job) are you allowed to?
Overload for additional on-campus employment may be approved by the Associate Dean of the Graduate School for domestic student GAs.
- GAs are not eligible for FMLA.
Correct but a Parental Leave Fellowship is available.
- If we are already registered for 9 credits of courses in the fall or spring, do we still need to register for these "courses"?
No you do not need to register for either GRAD 600 or 601.
- We have pre-candidacy CMSC 898 in cs department, is it equal to grad 601?
No.
- So the purpose of the 600 level courses is to alleviate the academic burden while still qualifying as a full GA?
Yes. They account for the time and effort put into the GA.
- Would it count towards our degree? The 898 course?
Yes, as a Ph.D. in pre-candidacy status.

FAQs

- I have 3 credits next semester remaining in my program, should I get 601 and 600 to get full time?

Yes.

- When we get 5 credits cs 898, why do we need grad 601?

If you have in addition to 898 4 other academic credits, for a total of 9, you don't need 601. But if you still need 4, then you may use 601.

- Would certificate program credits fulfill the requirements of full time and GA application?

Certificate program credits cannot be used. They must be from courses.

- Could you register for an extra class?

Yes but most classes are 3 credits. So that's 12 credits which is OK but anything beyond 9 credits is considered "term overload" and you need Associate Dean approval.

- Do the fees apply to the credits of GRAD 601 as well?

No fees are assessed on GRAD 600 or 601.

- It's per ISSS an international student with less than 4 academic credits can work full time under CPT. Let's say a GA wants to do this could the GA register for less than 3 academic credits and 6 credits under 600 or 601 and also work full time in CPT?

No. 9 credits is full time enrollment (regardless of whether or not 601 is part of the enrollment) and students are not eligible for full-time CPT while enrolled full time.

FAQs

- I have an academic GA appointment, and I was told that I can apply to be a summer GA. How do I go about that?
Work with your Graduate Program Coordinator or Director to get this established.
- What classifies as work? If its unpaid or volunteer position, does it still count?
Although unpaid volunteer positions are certainly considered work, all GAs must be paid for their service to the university. Every GA receives a stipend.
- Is health insurance provided for all GA's (including Grader)?
For any GA contractor health insurance is at the department's discretion.
- For Peace Workers if there is a conflict and it can't be resolved through the program do we still go to you for assistance?
Please reach out to the Associate Dean of the Graduate School.
