

The Department of Gender and Women's Studies presents

Teaching Across Differences in the New Political Landscape

DACA Workshop

Featuring presentations from:

JoAnna Gavigan, Esq, an immigration lawyer and American Studies alumna. She will provide a primer on DACA to educate faculty on the legal issues surrounding the program.

David Di Maria, Associate Vice Provost for International Education at UMBC. He will share information on UMBC policy and protocol for dealing with issues surrounding DACA/immigration status on campus.

There will be ample time for discussion to ensure that we address as many faculty questions and concerns as possible.

Friday, October 6th, 2-3:30pm

Fine Arts 011

