

History student council

WELCOME BACK PIZZA!

The word ‘pizza’ was first documented in 997 CE in Gaeta. Serving pizza at History Student Council meetings illustrates the way pizza has changed over time.

Therefore, attending the History Student Council and eating pizza counts as history research.¹ In this essay, I will Learn about our plans for field trips, fun events, and how to be more involved with UMBC’s History Department!

WEDNESDAY, FEB 19
FINE ARTS NORTH 531
FREE HOUR—NOON-1

¹ alas, though we are scholars, it doesn’t count as scholarly history research.
Just fun, delicious research.