PARADE
SATURDAY, JUNE 25TH
Charles St. @ 1:00 - 3:00 pm

On Saturday morning, The Baltimore Pride Parade will kick off the day's activities at 1pm. The route begins at North Charles and 33rd Street, passes Wyman Park and at N. Charles & 23rd Street, and culminates at the Block Party.

BLOCK PARTY

SATURDAY, JUNE 25TH
Charles St. @ 3:00 - 9:00 pm

The Parade flows directly into The Block Party, so continue in the fun with us in Station North. You're going to want to stay all day so that way you don't miss any of the guest DJs, drag performers, and this year's headliner: TBD

THE HIGH HEEL RACE
SATURDAY, JUNE 25TH
Charles St. @ 12:10pm -12:15pm

Line up will begin at 12pm on 25th Street, and the race will run a block ending on 24rd Street, at the viewing podium. We are envisioning to start the race between 12:10-12:15 as to give some time for participants to line up.

PRIDE IN THE PARK
SUNDAY, JUNE 26TH
Druid Hill Park @ 12:00 - 6:00 pm

On Sunday, the festival continues at Baltimore's history Druid Hill Park with performances on the main stage, exhibitors, and more fun throughout the park. This year will be bigger than ever, so gather the squad, bring a picnic blanket, and get there early so you don't miss a thing. This year's headliners will include: Mya, Averie Wilson and George Lovett.

ELDER PRIDE
SUNDAY, JUNE 26TH
Druid Hill Park @ 12pm-6pm

ELDERPRIDE in the park during Baltimore PRIDE festival holds space for those our Elders and welcomes all ages. This multigenerational tent offers the opportunity for people to add their names to a timeline of LGBTQ history and celebrate their "coming out" anniversary in an "Out Proud" photo booth.
