

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28th, 12 P.M.
IN-PERSON // AOK LIBRARY GALLERY// UMBC

DISTINGUISHED SEMMINAR IN GEOGRAPHY AND ENVIRONMENTAL SYSTEMS

Monumental Denial: Cultural Memory, the Denial of White Supremacy, and U.S. Territory

In this talk Dr. Pulido explores how U.S. cultural memory represents processes of white supremacy and settler colonization.

Laura Pulido, PhD

Collins Chair and Professor, University of Oregon

Hosted by the Department of Geography & Environmental Systems.

Co-sponsored by the Eminent Mentors Program, the Latinx and Hispanic Faculty Association, the Center for Social Sciences Scholarship, the Drescher Center for the Humanities, the Global Studies program, and the Latin America and Caribbean Feminism Working Group & the Albin O. Kuhn Library & Gallery.

