

The Department of Africana Studies, the Albin O. Kuhn Library & Gallery, and the National Endowment for the Humanities invite you to a screening of

THE LOVING STORY

Film Overview:

*Mildred and Richard Loving were arrested in July 1958, in Virginia, for violating a state law that banned marriage between people of different races; such laws had been on the books in most states since the seventeenth century. The Lovings never expected to be awoken in their bedroom in the middle of the night and arrested. The documentary brings to life the Lovings' marriage and the legal battle that followed through little-known filmed interviews and photographs shot for Life magazine.*
