

What's the (T)ea?

Social Justice Dialogue Series

"What's the T?" a phrase originating from Black Gay Ball culture, circa 1970-1989, that indicated that someone was the "T"alk of the "T"own, hence the "T." "What's the T? - It means like "What's up?" "What's going on?" Sources: Urban Dictionary, Answers.com, Wikipedia

We all talk about how diverse UMBC is. But, what does that mean in reality? How does it show up in how we communicate and interact with each other? When does celebrating diversity shift into inclusivity that creates positive social change in and outside our campus community? This new series hopes to help us grapple with these questions.

Join us for a facilitated discussion of these topics. Voice your opinions and hear those of your fellow community members.

February 4th, 12-1pm

Topic: Activism - Past, Present, Future
(In recognition of National Black History Month)

March 4th, 12-1pm

Topic: Gendering Religion
(In recognition of National Women's History Month)

April 1st, 12-1pm

Topic: Our Modern Families
(In recognition of National Asian Pacific American Heritage Month - May)

Note: All sessions will occur monthly on Wednesdays at Noon (free hour) in Student Life's Mosaic: Center for Culture and Diversity, Commons 2B23. For more info mosaic@umbc.edu, 410.455.2686, or visit our myUMBC group page (Student Life's Mosaic Center and Interfaith Centers)