

The Women's Center with
Student Life's Mosaic Center Present
Critical Social Justice:
BALTIMORE 365
Keynote Event

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2015

BALTIMORE IN ACTION: ALWAYS RISING

A teach-in featuring Baltimore activists:

Rev. Dr. Heber Brown, III, Faith-Based Activist

Dr. Marisela B. Gomez, Community Activist

Tawanda Jones, Activist and Sister of Tyrone West

Jacqueline Robarge, Founder of Power Inside

Kwame Rose, Activist and Hip-Hop Artist

Moderated by Marc Steiner

Doors open at 6:30 pm

Keynote begins at 7pm

Reception follows at 8:30pm

UC Ballroom

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Contact womens.center@umbc.edu if you need special accommodations.

Sponsored by: Division of Undergraduate Academic Affairs | Division of Student Affairs
Residential Life | College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences | Honors College
Women Involved in Learning and Leadership | Dresher Center for the Humanities
Baltimore Collegetown Network | Department of Sociology & Anthropology
Department of Media & Communication Studies | Department of American Studies
Language, Literacy, and Culture Program | UMBC Alumni Association