

BALTIMORE CITY
IS AT THE CENTER
OF THE NATIONAL CONVERSATION
AROUND QUESTIONS
OF JUSTICE, RACE,
AND COMMUNITY.

The ICJS is poised to add religious voices to this vital discussion through our 2016 initiative:

Imagining Justice in Baltimore.

956 Dulaney Valley Road
Baltimore, Maryland 21204

Imagining Justice in Baltimore is a year-long series of innovative programs that will bring together diverse participants from the city and surrounding areas, across ethnic, socioeconomic, and religious divides, to read, reflect, and talk about justice.

We invite you to join us as we launch this initiative with a three-part speaker series which focuses on how our religious texts and traditions shape our understanding of justice in the public square.
