

BEYOND THE VEIL: MAKING SENSE OF THE SPIRIT WORLD

FREE ONLINE SYMPOSIUM

Join the fall 2023 AOK Library Spotlight! symposium speakers as they explore themes from the Special Collections' Eileen J. Garrett Parapsychology Foundation collection, such as the history of human interaction (beliefs and practices) with supernatural, paranormal, mystic, and psychical phenomena, as well as the intersection of race, spiritualities, magic, mysticism and feminist expression with the otherworldly. Registration and more info can be found in the QR code.

ALL PRESENTATIONS AT NOON ONLINE

- |          |   |
|----------|---|
| 9/20/23  | Mediums, Magicians, and the Ouija Board: A Spiritualist History of Baltimore , Julie Saylor, Library Associate, Enoch Pratt Free Library   |
| 10/16/23 | Hoodoo is Black Culture: Ancestor Veneration in the Everyday , Toya Smith, Priestess & Conjurewoman  |
| 10/25/23 | Temporality, Time Jumping and the Space Time Continuum of Black Oral History , Orilonse Yarborough, Public Historian & Curator             |
| 11/08/23 | We've Always Banked on Survival: The History of Hoodoo and Climate Resilience , Hess Love, Writer & Co-founder, Chesapeake Conjure Society |
| 11/15/23 | Séance: Spiritualism, Photography and the Search for Ectoplasm , Shannon Taggart, Photographer   |
| 11/29/23 | Re-forming the Dead: Abolitionist Iconoclasm and the Spirit Circle , Lindsay DiCuirci, Associate Professor of English, UMBC                |

