

MULTIDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES TO EXAMINING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LANGUAGE AND ISSUES OF SOCIAL JUSTICE

FEBRUARY 10, 2021
5:00 - 6:30PM

The Language Engagement Project and The Language Center are pleased to launch the Language and Social Justice Initiative 2021-2022 webinar series. This structured, topic-based program discusses issues related to language and social justice with a focus on intersectionality with different fields of study, interdisciplinary scholarship, and community building while providing a safe space for Rutgers students, staff, faculty, and alumni to share their feelings and experiences with other members.

You are cordially invited to our first webinar on "Multidisciplinary Approaches to Examining the Relationship between Language and Issues of Social Justice". Our speakers will discuss research, scholarship and teaching practices on language and social justice in Linguistics, Sociolinguistics, and Anthropology.

Register for this event:

<https://rutgers.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJMkdu6orD0pE9E9w-sf4wUuBgb1ZsPOvX8Y>

SPEAKERS

Dr. Nicole Houser

Associate Teaching Professor
Director of Rutgers English
Language Institute (RELI)

Dr. Kristen Syrett

Associate Professor
Undergraduate Program Director (UPD)
Presidential Term Chair in Experimental Linguistics
Department of Linguistics
Rutgers Center for Cognitive Science
(RuCCS)

Kathleen Riley

Teaching Instructor
Anthropology Department

The Language Center
The Language Engagement Project

The Language Engagement Project engages in research, pedagogy, and community collaboration initiatives on language and social justice. We implement an interdisciplinary approach to comprehensively acknowledge and address the inequities perpetuated by linguistic and cultural discrimination in our classrooms and communities.

lep.rutgers.edu

language.justice@tlc.rutgers.edu

