

Georgetown University Law Center's Black Law Students Association (BLSA) is pleased to announce the 18th Annual Students of Color Outreach Day. This year, BLSA is partnering with the following organizations to prepare prospective students for a legal education:

- Asian Pacific American Law Students Association (APALSA)
- Georgetown African Law Society (GALS)
- Latin American Law Students Association (LALSA)
- Middle Eastern and North African Law Students Association (MENALSA)
- Native American Law Student Association (NALSA)
- South Asian Law Students Association (SALSA)
- Women of Color Collective (WoCC)

Date: Saturday, November 9, 2024
Time: 9:30 am – 5:30 pm
Location: McDonough Hall - Room 201
Georgetown University Law Center
600 New Jersey Ave NW, Washington, DC 20001
Price: Free

Students of Color Outreach Day brings together prospective law students to learn more about Georgetown Law, the admissions process, the law school experience, and financial aid. The event presents an excellent opportunity for students to meet the Admissions staff, speak with current students and professors, and learn more about Georgetown's exceptional community.

Programming will include:

- Essential Information from Dean of Admissions, Andy Cornblatt
- Panel Q & A with Diverse Georgetown Law Students
- Mock First-Year Law Class
- Career and Financial Advice
- Tour of the Georgetown Law Campus
- Breakfast and Lunch

We are eager to meet students of color who are interested in Georgetown Law! Please share this open invitation with any interested students. RSVPs for in-person attendance will be accepted until we reach capacity or Wednesday, November 6, 2024: RSVP Here or at <https://bit.ly/3MT8erA>. There will also be an option to attend the event virtually.

If you have any questions or concerns about the event, please email eo469@georgetown.edu.

Sincerely,
