PROGRAM BEGINS:
January 17, 2020

COST:
$100 to cover meals and lodging

AREA OF FOCUS

Collegetown Underground will focus on how college students can be active citizens in the Baltimore region. With 2020 being an election and census year, students will learn about the ways they can participate in government and local communities. The program will explore the history and landscape of local civic engagement and connect students with elected officials and community leaders.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

- Civic-minded students who want to learn more about Baltimore's community and opportunities
- Baltimore Collegetown Network undergraduate and graduate students from any major or program
- Those able to commit to all the program dates
