

Creative Writing in Wales

May 27 - June 7, 2019

Professor Sally Shivnan

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Dylan Thomas International Summer School is a 12-day intensive creative writing program, with a focus on “spirit of place” in its daily writing workshops, excursions, and evening readings by visiting authors. An added benefit is the chance to study with a diverse mix of undergraduate, graduate, and post-graduate writing students.

PROGRAM DETAILS

The program cost includes:

- » One UMBC course taught by professor Sally Shivnan (ENGL 475, 3 credits)
- » Waived UMBC tuition
- » Housing with private baths
- » All meals
- » Airport pick-up and drop-off in London
- » Guest speakers
- » Cultural Activities and field trips
- » International Health Insurance

COST & FINANCIAL AID

- » $ 3,600
- » Some students may be eligible for financial aid. Check with your financial aid advisor.
- » Scholarships may be available. Contact the Study Abroad office for assistance.
- » NOT INCLUDED: international airfare, passport fees, personal spending money

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Attend Study Abroad 101
- 2 Schedule Study Abroad Advising Appointment
- 3 Application opens November 1
- 4 Application deadline February 15

INFORMATION SESSIONS

All sessions in PAHB 428

- » November 5, 2018 at 12:00
- » December 3, 2018 at 12:00

Email
sao@umbc.edu

Website
studyabroad.umbc.edu

MyUMBC group
my.umbc.edu/groups/studyabroad

Facebook icon UMBC Study Abroad

Twitter icon @UMBCStudyAbroad

Instagram icon umbcstudyabroad