

The Center of Global Engagement and the Shriver Center present:

The Intercultural Engagement Prep Program

Spring 2024

Are you an...

- International student
- Future or returned study abroad student
- Student interested in pursuing the Peace Corps
- Student who has an interest in preparing for other international or intercultural experiences

Grow your Intercultural competency and skills with the Intercultural Engagement Prep Program

- Develop your critical analytical skills
- Increase your cultural self-awareness
- Critically reflect on your own unconscious bias
- Develop strategies to improve and apply your intercultural communication
- Recognize how cultural differences, commonalities, and dynamics can lead to conflict
- Understand the importance of intercultural dialogue and intercultural citizenship competencies for fostering social justice

Offered in a hybrid format.

Sign up here for more information:

