PROMISES KEPT: RAISING BLACK BOYS TO SUCCEED IN SCHOOL & IN LIFE

Monday, September 15 at 7PM

Knowing that their own African American son, Idris, would face challenges as he navigated school, Michele Stephenson and Joe Brewster filmed the experience and produced an award-winning documentary, American Promise. Their work continues as they share the latest research and personal anecdotes in their new book Promises Kept: Raising Black Boys to Succeed in School and in Life.

FIRE SHUT UP IN MY BONES

Wednesday, October 1 at 7PM

Charles M. Blow, New York Times op-ed columnist, will join us to talk about his own extraordinary life story—growing up in segregated, dirt poor Louisiana. Shawn Dove, director of OSF's Campaign for Black Male Achievement will serve as moderator.

CRACKING THE CODES

Monday, October 6 at 7PM

Join us for a screening of Cracking the Codes: The System of Racial Inequity, a film that explores the difficulty of talking about race in a meaningful way, and a community dialogue with filmmaker and racial justice educator Shakti Butler. This event is co-sponsored by the Annie E. Casey Foundation, Baltimore Racial Justice Action, and YWCA Greater Baltimore.

BIG CHANGE BALTIMORE 2014
