

A roundtable discussion with religious and spiritual leaders engaged in social justice activism in Baltimore followed by a facilitated audience conversation.

Invited Panelists: Cara Behneman, Director of UMBC Hillel and Chair of the UMBC Religious Council | Rev. Dr. Brad Braxton, Senior Pastor, The Open Church of Baltimore | Ashley Bryner, Senior Druid of CedarLight Grove, ADF and Member of the UMBC Religious Council, Asma Inge-Hanif, Executive Director of Muslimat Al Nisaa, INC

FROM BELIEF TO ACTION: AN INTERFAITH DIALOGUE

A CRITICAL SOCIAL JUSTICE: BALTIMORE 365 EVENT!

THURSDAY, OCT 22, 2015 5PM - 6:30PM
THE COMMONS : MAIN STREET

Moderated by Lisa Gray, Assistant Director of Student Life, Cultural and Spiritual Diversity

This event is free and open to the public. Event hosted by Student Life's Mosaic: Center for Culture and Diversity as part of Critical Social Justice Week, Oct. 19-23. For event updates and more information on Critical Social Justice: Baltimore 365, visit critsocjustice.wordpress.com.

