

Native American Heritage Month Events Calendar: November 1 - November 30, 2018

Welcome! Here, you will find a list of events in Baltimore and Washington, D.C. in celebration of the 2018 Native American Heritage Month! We invite you to share this with your friends, co-workers, professors, and networks across campus. For more information, feel free to visit the Multicultural Resource Calendar located on Campus Life's Mosaic website!

Important fact: UMBC was built on the Piscataway tribal land.

Happy Native American Heritage Month!

-Karina Aquiahuatl Villagran, Intern for Hispanic, Latinx, and Indigenous Student Engagement

Baltimore

Baltimore American Indian Center: Heritage Museum

Visit the Museum where its garden grows the herbs and plants used by the Native Americans on the East Coast; its multi-purpose center holds a variety of programs and events. A $5 donation is suggested.

Location: 113 South Broadway

Monday 5 | 12:00a.m. - 1:30p.m. | Celebrating Native American Heritage Month

The Johns Hopkins Center for American Indian Health is hosting a discussion with Gregg Deal. They are an artist, activist, and a community member of the Pyramid Lake Paiute Tribe. RSVP at Gregg-deal.eventbrite.com. For any questions, email AmericanIndian.jhu.edu.

Location: 615 N. Wolfe St. in Sommer Hall

Saturday 17 | 11:00a.m. - 7:00p.m. | 2018 Baltimore American Indian Center Pow Wow

Join the 44th Annual BAIC Pow Wow to experience the sights and sounds of a Native American pow wow by watching dancers and drummers. Browse and shop the Native craft and food vendors. Admission for adults is $10 and $5 for children 4-12. .Learn more here.

Location: Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, 4H Building

Tuesday 20 | 12:00a.m. - 1:00p.m. | Native Voices

The University of Maryland Baltimore is hosting traditional story-telling about animals and hero/tricksters to provide a clearer understanding of the values and cultures of the diverse First Nations of North America

Location: SMC Campus Center, Fireplace Lounge

Washington, D.C.

Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian

1. Americans Exhibit about the Native American identity, culture, and history
2. Nation to Nation Exhibit about the treaties between the United States and Native American nations

Saturday 3 | 10:00a.m. - 4:00p.m. | Native American Stories Family Day

From the Cherokee to the Pueblo, 573 Native American tribes today are legally recognized by the U.S. Government. Learn about Native Americans and their relationships with the United States. And try your hand at deciphering Navajo code, creating a storyboard for a movie on athlete Jim Thorpe, or delving into treaties between the United States and Indian nations.

Location: Boeing Learning Center

Saturday 17 | 10:00a.m. - 5:00p.m. | Hopi Tribal Festival

The Hopi Tribe is a sovereign nation located in northeastern Arizona. Their reservation encompasses more than 1.5-million acres, and is made up of 12 villages on three mesas. Since time immemorial the Hopi people have lived in Hopitutskwa, knowledge and respect for the earth, and they continue to maintain a sacred covenant with Maasaw, its ancient caretaker, to live as peaceful and humble farmers. Over the centuries Hopi endures as a tribe, retaining its culture, language, and religion despite influences from the outside world. During their festival, the Hopi people will share artist demonstrations, history presentations, and performances of music and dance.

Location: American Indian Museum, Potomac

Saturday 23 | 10:00a.m. - 4:00p.m. | Native American Heritage Day: Family Fun Friday

Come to a family celebration of Native American Heritage Day. The museum will showcase Native culture through hands-on activities, make-and-takes, and music and interactive dance presentations.

Location: American Indian Museum, Potomac