

UMBC celebrates

NATIVE AMERICAN

Heritage Month

Calendar of Events

November 1-30 and Beyond

The Book Escape
805 Light St
Baltimore, MD 21230
410.504.1902

The Book Escape in Federal Hill contains a large assortment of books, including those highlighting American Indian/ Native American cultures. Visit www.thebookescape.com for details.

November 5, 12-1pm (Free Hour)

UMBC Celebrates Diversity - Native American Heritage Month
Commons Main St.
Visit Student Life's Mosaic Center myUMBC page for details
my.umbc.edu/groups/themosaic/events/27485

November 17, 12-1pm (Free Hour)

Leadership & Systems Thinking Workshop + PIZZA
Case Study Competition: The Washington Redskins Logo
Commons, Lower Flat Tuesday's Pub
Visit Student Life's Mosaic Center myUMBC page for details
my.umbc.edu/groups/lc/events/27861

November 5, 12-1pm (Free Hour)

What's the Tea? Mosaic Social Justice Discussion. Topic: Cultural Appropriation (In recognition of Native American Heritage Month)
Student Life's Mosaic Center, The Commons room 2B23
Visit Student Life's Mosaic Center myUMBC page for details
my.umbc.edu/groups/themosaic/events/27045

November 17, 12-1pm (Free Hour)

International Education Week Bazaar
Commons Main St.
Visit Student Life's Mosaic Center myUMBC page for details
my.umbc.edu/groups/themosaic/events/25205

Nov. 22, 11am-7pm & Nov. 23, 11am-6pm

Baltimore American Indian Center's 40th Annual Pow Wow
Towson University, University Union
Admission: Adults $10, Children (12-4 years) $5
Free for ages 3 and younger.
Visit www.baic.org for details

Note: This calendar is produced by Student Life's Mosaic: Center for Culture and Diversity. If we missed adding your organization, office or department's American Indian/Native American focused event, please send us the details at mosaic@umbc.edu and we'll be happy to add them to our online version of this calendar. (On and off-campus events are welcomed.)

