

MOSAIC AND INTERFAITH CENTER NEWSLETTER

DECEMBER EDITION

The Mosaic: Center for Culture and Diversity is a center for diversity education and collaboration on UMBC's campus. The Center is committed to empowering all campus constituents to be socially aware and responsible members of our community. The center is a birthplace of diversity and social justice programs, ideas, and curriculum. Thus, the Center affirms students' multiple identities by addressing the needs of all members of the campus community.

ASK BIG QUESTIONS

Returns for Fall 2015

Friday, December 4th, 2015 | 6:15 – 8 PM
The Commons: Mainstreet

Topic: How Do You Recharge?

Join UMBC Hillel and Student Life's Mosaic Center in conversation as we consider this month's big question! If you have questions or need more information please contact Lesley, lesleyhillel@umbc.edu or Lisa, mosaic@umbc.edu

Ask Big Questions is a national initiative geared towards bringing different members of one community together to have open and honest dialogue. The aim of these conversations is to get participants to understand themselves through understanding others, while sparking action in the community. The goal of this discussion is to have us think critically about ourselves and how we can grow as people.

A kosher meal will provided after the conclusion of the discussion.

Ask Big Questions is a collaboration between UMBC Hillel and Student Life's Mosaic Center. All UMBC Community members are welcome to attend.
