

UMBC Celebrates

Hispanic Heritage Month 2017

September 20 • Vicissitudes of Literary Research in Cuba

12:00 p.m.
Towson University, University Union, Chesapeake I & II

A journey from personal experiences to historical circumstances, Professor Hernández Otero will talk about Cuban Culture and the Revolutionary process from a historical and personal point of view.

September 20 • Mundo Lingo: Game Tournament

4- 6:00 p.m.
The Commons: Gameroom

Mundo Lingo encourages you to practice your second (or third) language skills and share your culture with other UMBC community members! Come hang out with friends and make brand new connections. All levels of proficiency welcome.

September 21 • Screening of the Film Santa y Andres (2016)

6:30 p.m.
Towson University, College of Liberal Arts, Rm 2310.

Directed by Carlos Lechuga, Professor Hernández Otero will introduce the film and follow with Q&A after the screening.

September 21 • PAWTalks: Angy Rivera + Film Screening of Don't Tell Anyone

5-7:30 p.m.
Commons: Skylight Room

Join us for a brand new Mosaic Center series! PAWTalks highlights the richness of various cultures through speakers from around the country representing diverse backgrounds.

September 22 • A Baltimorean on the Cuban Stage: Calvert Cassey and the Cuban theater in the 60's.

12:00 p.m.
Towson University, University Union - Chesapeake I & II

Round table on Cuban/Baltimorean writer Calvert Casey, with Prof. Hernández Otero and Dr. Diego del Pozo, from Foreign Languages.

September 25 • Screening of the film Lucía (1968)

7:30 pm.
Van Bokkelen Auditorium

The film will be introduced by Prof. Hernández Otero, followed by Q&A after the screening.

September 26 • Show Me Your Papers: The Political Cartoons of Lalo Alcaraz

7-8:30 pm
PAHB: Proscenium Theatre

Humanities Forum: In this talk, political cartoonist and film and TV writer, Lalo Alcaraz, will explore his history as an editorial cartoonist and creator of La Cucaracha, the first politically oriented and Latino-themed syndicated daily comic strip.

September 28 • How to Be A Better Ally: Indigenous Hispanic/Latinx People

4-5:30 pm
The Commons: Mosaic Center (2B23)

How to Be a Better Ally is a co-facilitated workshop series that focuses on various underrepresented and/or marginalized populations. Come join us for snacks and light refreshments! This event is open to all!

October 7 • Reporting Back from a Delegation to El Salvador & Next Phase to Defend DACA and TPS Immigrants

2-4:30 p.m.
Savage Branch Library, Albert Einstein Room, 9525 Durness Lane, Laurel, MD 20723

Peggy Goetz reports about a recent CISPES (Committee in Solidarity with the People of El Salvador) trip sharing first-hand information and analysis on the current political, social, and economic context in El Salvador.

The Mosaic

Center for Culture and Diversity

 /OSL/MOSAIC