

In-House Team Development Made Easy!

---

Workshop for Faculty and Staff Team Leaders

Are you looking for ways to do team development over the summer on a tight budget?

Did you know that resources are available to you for free, to develop your team without having to design a program or hire an external trainer?

Come to this two-hour session to learn how to facilitate action-oriented team discussions that result in new behavior and improved outcomes.

Thursday
May 1, 2014

9:00 – 11:00 a.m.

The Commons
Room 331

You will leave with:

- New inspiration about your leadership role regarding team development.
- Awareness of free resources available in SkillSoft e-Learning.
- Appreciation of the benefits of team learning and action-oriented implementation.
- Knowledge of what blended learning is, how to find the resources, and how to facilitate discussion and action planning.
- A project plan for your first blended learning experience for your team.

Facilitators:
Terri Werner and Jill
Weinknecht Wardell from the UMBC Training and Organization Development
Department.
