

Archives Month

October 2010

<http://aok.lib.umbc.edu/specoll/archivesmonth>

a compliment to have been sent and return a great purchase equivalent to pay a few words of the Motherhood of America -

800 Baltimore, Md. July 1899
Dear Mr. Marshall
a berry picker on Justice Farm, Rock Creek, near Baltimore, Md.
Born at 11 1/2 months. Price about 10 boxes a day. (if a guess box)
shown July 7, 1899.

Wed 10/6: Lynn Cazabon presentation, "Discard" Library Gallery, 12pm free hour

Mon 10/18: "Using images for original research" Presented by UMBC, College Park, and Library of Congress staff
Library Gallery, 10am

Mon 10/18: Maryland History and Cultural Collaborative meeting (RSVP required)

All month:

Archives-related book display, 1st floor of the Library

"In the Archives": UMBC faculty, staff, volunteers, and alumni recall their experiences with archives and special collections from across the United States

Available at: <http://www.umbc.edu/blogs/library/>

Essayists include:

Liz Barr, '04

Michael Bowler, Library volunteer

Richard Byrne, UMBC Magazine

Christopher Corbett, English

David Hoffman, Office of Student Life

Jim Lord & Jenny O'Grady, Institutional Advancement

Ed Orser, American Studies

Jody Shipka, English

Presented by the Albin O. Kuhn Library & Gallery
University of Maryland, Baltimore County