

President's Commission for Women Spring Event

Women's Changing Role In the 21st Century

Thursday, April 7, 2011-- UC Ballroom

Women from diverse fields share their personal journeys including their challenges, successes, and significant turning points as they pursued their field of interest as well as share how they see the role of women changing in their field in the 21st century.

- 9:00-9:30 Continental Breakfast (sign in begins at 8:30)
- 9:30-9:45 Welcoming /Remarks – Dr. Janet Rutledge, Vice Provost & Dean of the Graduate School
- 9:45-11:00 Panel #1:
- Arts – Dr. Kathy O'Dell, Associate Professor of Visual Arts and Associate Dean of Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences
- Corporate/Non-profit – Ms. Danielle Viens-Payne, 2010 Alumna – Modern Languages, Linguistics and Intercultural Communication
- Social Sciences – Ms. Yasmin Radbod, Honors Student
- 11:00-11:15 Break
- 11:15-12:30 Panel #2:
- Humanities – Dr. Michelle Scott, Associate Professor of History
- Technology/Engineering – Dr. Penny Rheingans, Professor of Computer Science and Director of the Center for Women & Information Technology
- Science/Mathematics – Dr. Phyllis Robinson, Professor of Biological Sciences
- 12:30-1:15 Lunch & Entertainment – Mollie Monahan-Kreishman, Director, UMBC
 Women's Center shares a few words and introduces The Stilettos
- 1:15-1:30 Closing Remarks – Dr. Freeman Hrabowski, President

Contact Dawn Stoute (DStoute@umbc.edu) if an organization would like to reserve an information table at the event.

Visit www.umbc.edu/women or my.umbc.edu/groups/women

Register at www.umbc.edu/training (space is limited)

UMBC
AN HONORS UNIVERSITY IN MARYLAND

Register through April 1, 2011

This is a FREE event for all UMBC Students, Faculty & Staff!

PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION FOR WOMEN