

Neurodiversity in the Workplace

A Collaborative National Conference

March 22–24, 2023 | Marriott Marquis Washington, DC

Register Today!

Join the collaborative conference that brings together a community that is committed to improving employment outcomes for the neurodiverse workforce.

Through collective impact, we will engage in dynamic discussions, learn from expert presenters, and build a network of change-makers who utilize diverse and inclusive employment practices. This conference empowers employers to build a dynamic workforce and enhance the workplace.

Keynote speaker:
human rights lawyer and
author Haben Girma

The first Deafblind person to graduate from Harvard Law School, Haben believes disability is an opportunity for innovation, and she teaches organizations the importance of choosing inclusion.

Named a White House Champion of Change by President Obama, Haben has also received the Helen Keller Achievement Award as well as a spot on the Forbes 30 Under 30 list, and she has delivered a TIME100 Talk.

Conference Registration Rates

Regular Rate
Until 3/14/2023	$440
Late Registration
3/15/2023 – 3/22/2023	$490

Who should attend?

- Members of the business community
- State and Federal elected officials, policymakers, and staffers
- Agency administrators
- Adult service providers
- Medical providers
- Individuals with disabilities
- Family members of individuals with disabilities
- Disability advocates
- Educators
- Representatives of UCEDD organizations

Visit KennedyKrieger.org/NDW23 to register.

Kennedy Krieger Institute