What no one ever told you about job pay and benefits

Landing your first job can be exciting—and intimidating. Between tax deductions, insurance elections and retirement plans, your first paycheck might be smaller than expected. This session breaks down what's actually on your paystub and why your benefits matter more than you think. In this webinar, you'll learn:

- How to understand your paycheck and what's being withheld
- How employer benefits factor into your total compensation
- How to make the most of your benefits from day one
