

(1) The Melancholy of Haruhi Suzumiya

Kyon no longer believes in fantasy. Aliens? Time travelers? Espers? That's all make-believe. Or at least it would be if he never met Haruhi Suzumiya. Haruhi wants to make the world a more interesting place to live in, no matter how much reality she has to break to make it so. Now Kyon has to team up with these make-believe beings to keep the world from falling apart from the whims of a teenage girl. So much for a normal high school life...

(2) Bungo Stray Dogs

Abandoned by his orphanage, Nakajima Atsushi is pulled from his destitute life by rescuing a man on the brink of suicide—in doing so, he is brought into the supernatural world of an underground detective agency aiming to take on the cases too deadly for the common police and military force. Featuring turn-of-the-century/Sherlock Holmes style mysteries with a paranormal flair, a unique setting, and thrilling characters, Bungou Stray Dogs is an action-packed series that will leave you wanting to binge as many episodes as you can.

(3) Ascendance of a Bookworm

Motosu Urano wants only one thing out of life, to read books. However, immediately after getting her dream job of becoming a librarian, she dies during an earthquake and gets reborn into a world where books are incredibly scarce. She must work hard to overcome the challenges of poverty, a sickly body, a foreign culture, and a (written) language barrier in order to fulfill her dream.

(4) KARAKAI JOZU NO TAKAGI-SAN

"I swear I'm going to tease and embarrass Takagi-san today!" Nishikata, a middle-schooler, keeps getting teased by the girl who sits next to him in class, Takagi-san. He tries every day to get back at her, but will he ever succeed? Takagi-san and Nishikata's youthful teasing battle starts now!

(5) Mob Psycho 100

Eighth-grader Shigeo "Mob" Kageyama has tapped into his inner wellspring of psychic prowess at a young age. But the power quickly proves to be a liability when he realizes the potential danger in his skills. Choosing to suppress his power, Mob's only present use for his ability is to impress his longtime crush, Tsubomi, who soon grows bored of the same tricks.

(6) Tengen Toppa Gurren Lagann

Gurren Lagann is a coming of age story about two "brothers" and their dream to pierce the heavens. In the far future everyone lives underground scared of the surface. Assuming it's unlivable up there. One day a giant mech falls through there underground bunker and they see there is a still surface but it's infested with beast men who pilot mechs and kill all humans who come out. Our main characters Simon and Kamari must overcome years of put downs and harassment to show there is hope for humanity. Also giant mech fights and brotherly love. Row row fight the power

(7) Re-kan!

A heartwarming horror-comedy centering around the life of Hibiki Amami, a girl who can see ghosts and otherworldly things, as well as talk to animals.

(8) Zombie Land Saga

Minamoto Sakura is starting her second year of high school with a song in her heart and a head full of dreams! Can she really become a glittering idol on stage? Are her nights of living as a normal high school girl coming to an end?

(9) Log Horizon

Upon the release of the 12th expansion pack for Elder Tale, an MMORPG, 30,000 players in Japan find themselves trapped inside the game as their in-game avatars. Among them is the main character, Shiroe. To survive in this new world, he teams up with his old friend Naotsugu and an assassin named Akatsuki to explore the limits of the world and]the different mechanics of this game-made-reality.

(10) Lovely Complex

Koizumi's just started high school, and she's got a little problem: for a girl, she's super tall! Meanwhile, her classmate Otani's got a big problem: he's virtually a midget, but still wants to join the basketball team. Written off as a bickering comedy duo by their teachers and classmates, the pair can't decide who's less likely to find love before graduating, and ultimately bet each other on who'll actually land a significant other.