Warm up and cool down for three to five minutes at the beginning and end of physical activities. Start at an easy pace. Listen to your body. Be aware of warning signs of overexertion. For more information on Safety Tips and Regulations for walking and jogging go to www.umbc.edu/athletics/recreation