Interdisciplinary CoLab: Narrative-Based Paid Internship

Application Deadline: March 30

Create an effective narrative about UMBC’s campus, communities, and lives with an interdisciplinary team of undergraduate students.

$3000 stipend

3-credit internship

4 weeks, 30 hours/week

OPEN TO ALL MAJORS

An excellent opportunity for students in STEM fields to learn to tell effective stories and for students in the social science and humanities to gain research and technical skills.

For more information, visit summer.umbc.edu.

The UMBC Interdisciplinary CoLab program is a partnership between Summer/Winter Programs, the Dresher Center for the Humanities, and the Provost’s Interdisciplinary Activities Advisory Committee.