

Did You Receive a Membership Invitation Letter?

About Membership

The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi's international community is a unique blend of students, academicians, and corporate and civic leaders from all fields of endeavor. Membership in Phi Kappa Phi recognizes and rewards academic success. Equally important, the Society provides its members access to exclusive resources and benefits designed to serve their academic and professional needs.

Did You Receive a Membership Invitation?

Congratulations on earning an invitation to membership in The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi! It means that you are among the very best and brightest that your university has to offer—not just in your chosen field of study, but among all academic disciplines.

The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is the nation's oldest and most selective all-discipline honor society. Standards for election are extremely high. Membership is by invitation only to the top 7.5 percent of second-semester juniors and the top 10 percent of seniors and graduate students. Because Phi Kappa Phi is highly selective, membership is a stamp of excellence that is recognized by graduate and professional school admissions committees and employers alike.

Phi Kappa Phi is much more than a line on a résumé. If you choose to accept this once-in-a-lifetime offer, you will join a select community of top scholars and professionals and gain access to resources and Benefits designed to serve your academic and professional needs. As a Phi Kappa Phi member, you will also be eligible to apply for numerous Scholarships and Awards, valued at more than $700,000 annually.

To accept your invitation to membership, follow the directions in your letter for accepting the invitation online. If you misplaced your invitation or have any questions, please send an email to the UMB-UMBC Chapter at phikappaphi@umbc.edu.
